

LAW COLLEGE, PHALTAN

Phaltan_ Girvi Road, Opp. Central Building , Phaltan Dist. – Satara
(Pin- 415 523) Phone :- (02166) 221127, 222657

Affiliated to Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Recog. by Govt. Of Maharashtra

E-Mail --- pdplaw@rediffmail.com

The college has created a transparent and update system for maintaining and utilizing Physical and Academic facilities. For Infrastructure is concerned a small repairs and changes are carried out under the supervision and direction of the Principal and major and big changes are subjected to Final decision of local management committee of the college. The computers in the college are maintained by the qualified service provider whenever it is necessary. The new purchase is kept before the college development committee and before the management committee.

The college library having rich collection of books and journals for legal education and research information. Library having old back year law journals like All India reporters, Maharashtra law journals supreme courts cases and also library is having online data base manupatra. The college is spending more than one lakh rupees for purchasing new books, Reference books, National journals, State journals, online legal data base etc.

The gymkhana committee meets regularly and look after the buying and maintenance of sports kits and other related materials. The college organizes the indoors and outdoors games every year the college is having well equipped eight class rooms with all basic facilities.

College having projector for creating the effective teaching and learning environment. Our college administration looks after and take care of facilities and services which are provided by college. The college has created necessary awareness by displaying the valuable instruction for proper use of given academic and physical facilities.